

Emerging Privacy and Ethical Challenges for Libraries in the 2.0 Era

May 4, 2010

3:00pm - 4:30pm

Golda Meir Library, West Wing,
4th Floor Conference Center
University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee
Free and open to the public

Panel Discussion:

Emerging Privacy and Ethical Challenges for Libraries in the 2.0 Era

- What innovative online tools and services are libraries bringing to users, and what are the potential impacts on patron privacy?
- Are there privacy considerations for providing or controlling access to digital collections?
- How do current laws & policies protect patron privacy, and are any changes coming?
- What are the broader ethical responsibilities for librarians and information professions in the libraries of the future?

Featured panelists:

- Liza Barry-Kessler: privacy lawyer and co-author Privacy in the 21st Century: Issues for Public, School, and Academic Libraries
- Kristin Eschenfelder: associate professor, School of Library and Information Studies, UW-Madison
- Peter Lor: visiting professor, School of Information Studies, UW-Milwaukee, Past Secretary General, International Federation of Library Associations (IFLA)
- Michael Zimmer: assistant professor, School of Information Studies, UW-Milwaukee

May 4 & 5, 2010

10:00am - 2:00pm

Golda Meir Library lobby

Your Privacy Online: A Hands-On Experience

Librarians and other on-campus electronic privacy experts will work one-on-one with you to adjust your privacy settings on social networking sites like Facebook and Twitter, help you control your visibility on Google, and answer questions about the changing world of online privacy.